

1.) What is a "worldview"?

The way one perceives the world based on their values and presuppositions.

2.) What elements would you include in a Christian worldview?

A Biblical moral system, a love for everyone, and a desire to spread the word.

3.) Why does Anderson claim that few Christians act like Christians?

They do not have a Biblical worldview.

4.) What is absolute truth?

A truth that is accepted by everyone.

5.) How do most Christians in America see themselves in American culture?

They see themselves as individuals first, Americans second, Christians last.

6.) What's the general perspective on ethics and morality in public schools in America today?

They teach that ethics is relative.